

RESPLENDENT HEALING

MARNIE REASOR, CCH Candidate

Marnie is passionate about the life-changing results that homeopathy provides. She regained her health after 12 years of chronic illnesses after she saw a homeopath. Impressed by the way homeopathy improved her physical, mental, and emotional well-being, she decided to become a homeopath to help others experience the same success. She also supports her clients with Rejuvenative Detoxification and nutritional counseling. Marnie's clients describe her as warm, encouraging, and focused on results.

Marnie is dedicated to treating:

- Women's health, including peri-menopause, menopause, PMS, and other hormonal imbalances
- Headaches, especially migraines
- Digestive problems
- Emotional healing
- Strengthening women's bones and preventing osteoporosis

Professional Affiliations, Degrees and Certifications

- Graduate of The School of Homeopathy, New York, a four-year graduate program, including courses in Anatomy and Physiology and Pathology and Disease.
- Four years of clinical experience at The School of Homeopathy and Pacific Academy of Homeopathy in San Francisco.
- Certified Classical Homeopath (CCH) candidate certified by the Council of Homeopathic Certification, which has approved only 450 homeopaths across the U.S. and Canada. www.homeopathicdirectory.com
- Member of the National Center for Homeopathy (NCH) and the North American Society of Homeopaths (NASH).
- Certified by La Fédération Européenne d'Herboristerie (F.E.H.) in the use of gemmotherapy, or Rejuvenative Detoxification, which uses plant stem cells to detoxify, nourish, and regenerate the body's cells.
- Graduate of Green Medicine, an 8 month herbal training program at the Open Center, New York, where she learned the medicinal and nutritional uses of Western herbs for balance, tonification, detoxification, and the treatment and prevention of illness.
- Founding member of San Francisco Steering Committee of the Weston A. Price Foundation and actively involved with this nutritional research organization since its inception in 1999. www.WestonAPrice.org
- Worked as a food education assistant at the Natural Gourmet Institute in New York for 7 years with some of the top nutritional experts in the U.S, including founder Annemarie Colbin, a leader in teaching health-supportive cooking and healing through nutrition.